FLOODLIT BUSINESS LEAGUE

SWBC will host their 4th annual tournament which will commence Wednesday 13th October 2010, starting at approx. 18h00, and again run over 4 consecutive weeks (weather permitting!)

Because the tournament has become so popular – and preference is always given to those companies that have supported in the past years – additional entries will be on a ‘1st come – 1st served basis.’ Why not treat the competition as a team building exercise, an acknowledgement of service or reward to preferential clients and enter a team?

This notification of the tournament may seem early, but (hopefully) will give your company advance notification for budgeting purposes. (We do try to be accommodating!)

To date we have 3 different winner plaques on the trophy (who will be the 1st to duplicate?) and all players always seem to remember RULE NO 1!

Entry fee is R600-00 per team, which includes snacks and the provision of bowls, and any additional information – or coaching requests (it has become VERY competitive) – can be obtained from me.

Telephonic response is initially adequate – but I’ll be in touch anyway!!
